

Regarding the above item on the agenda for changing the law, leave Indiana as it is. We are happy with the way the state has handled the nuisance phone calls and we would like to see our state left alone to decide these things for themselves. Why would you want to change something that so many residents of the state of Indiana subscribed to and are happy with the results. Leave well enough alone.